*Is your Real Estate agent offering you a commission back guarantee?
If the answer is NO, Why Not?*

When selecting a real estate agent, unfortunately you don't know how good or bad they are until the transaction is over and their fee is paid.

When we get to the closing table, if you are not satisfied and don't feel I have earned my fee, I will refund all or part of it back! Why? Because I'm confident you'll be completely satisfied and I am willing to back this up with a personal guarantee, in writing!

We trust that you will take advantage of this agreement in good faith.
